					Rupees 25 a month.	Chief in Council, 15th September 1779. Madras Government, 27th June 1823 and 4th December 1849, No. 1,161. Do. 15th April 1869, No. 1,027.			None.		In lieu of the Jaghire resumed by Govern- ment on the death of the late Nabob of Masulipatam, and declared to be held on the good pleasure of the Company.	Rustumja Bahadar, 1st son of Hussainally Khan.	Karimunnissabegam, daughter of Munsur- budwla, son of the original grantee. She died at Bagdad on 21st Feby. 1871.	The whole amount allotted to the deceased was intended for her enjoyment; there are no other sharers.	1. Fati Alli Mirzu, Khan brother of the deceased Bhanu Begum, nikka wife of the deceased father. 2. Mannavar Begum, daugh- ter of Kutubudwla, by Shadi wife. 3. Azizunnisa Begum, do. do. 4. Kajunally Mirza Khan. 5. Abbassi Mirza Khan, and 6. Sakhina Begum, children of do. by Mitta. 7. Two sons of Manna Begum deceased, named Goolamalli Khan and Hussainally Khan.	The seven individuals in column 10 are now in the enjoyment of the monthly allow- ances allotted to them by Government. Vide Order 15th April 1869, No. 1,027, besides they have no other means of livelihood.	In Government Order, dated 15th April 1869, No. 1,027, Government made a distribution of the pension enjoyed by the late Kutub-ud-Dowla to the several members of his family. One of the members Ka- reennissa Begum, grand- daughter of the late Kutub- ud-Dowla who was receiv- ing a monthly stipend of Rupees 25 is reported to have died at Kerbella, on 26th February 1871. Four petitions have been received laying claims to

The first is Fatta Ali Mirza Khan, son of Kutub Dowla by nikka marriage. This man, as the Board are aware, was on several occasions recommended for the headship of the family which the Government declined to recognise. He argues that had he been recognised as the Head, this allowance would have lapsed to him. He further states that children by nikka have claims not inferior to those by shadi, that as there is no male representative of the shadi branch and the females are all married, the deceased's allowance should be added to his in consideration of his becoming the actual, if not the recognised head of the family.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,

Sakhina Begum a female member of the Mitta branch repudiates the claims of Futti Ali Khan for exclusive enjoyment of the allowance of the deceased, and requests that it be distributed amongst the surviving members of the family. Her modesty in not applying for an exclusive grant is accounted for by the fact that marriages by Mitta are not considered so good as those of shadi and nikka.

The third application is on behalf of Mannavar Begum and Azizunnissa Begum daughters of Kutub-ud-Dowla by the shadi branch. It is requested on behalf of these that the allowance of the deceased be passed to her (deceased's) widower, who happens to be the minor son of Mannavar Begum, or that the allowance be equally distributed between the two ladies. The claims of the member of the shadi branch are certainly superior to those by the nikka; but Futti Ali Khan who represents the latter branch is the eldest male representative of the family, whereas the shadi branch is not represented by a male member.

The fourth petition is from Rajunally Mirza Khan, but as he belongs to the Mitta branch his claim like those of Sakhina Begum of the same branch cannot over-ride those of the other two branches.

In the action of Government on the death of Khatija Begum another member of this family is to be taken as a precedent, Futti Ali Khan would be entitled to have the allowance of Kareemunnissa Begum added to his. Government in their Order, dated 12th July 1870, No. 1,042, observed that Futti Ali Khan as eldest son of the deceased Kutubudowla was in all probability liable to various expenses from which the other members of the family are exempt. But this view would not mend the position of the ladies in the Shadi branch, who on account of the smallness of their present allowances seem also entitled to some consideration; I would therefore recommend that from the lapsed allowance of Rupees 25, Rupees 10 be added to Fatti Ali Khan's allowance, and that the remainder be equally distributed between the ladies. Mannavar and Azizunnissa Begum and the two children of the deceased sister Manna Begum, each of whom would in this case get Rupees 14 each.

The shadi marriage is generally admitted to be superior to the nikka, the issue of one have superior claim to the others. I request sanction for the payment of arrears due to the deceased to her legal heirs.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.—Petition.

From J. C. HANNYNGTON, Esq., Acting Collector of the Kistna District, to the Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Masulipatam, 9th October 1871, No. 3,076.

ABSTRACT.—Informs that Mr. Boswell has already reported on the death of Kareemunnissa Begum and the claim advanced for pension by her heirs.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
3rd February 1872.

SUBMITTED for the orders of Government.

2. The pension of Rupees 150 a month formerly held by the late Kutub-ud-Dowla was distributed among his heirs as follows:—

	RS.
1. Fatta Ali Khan, son of Kutub-ud-Dowla by Nicka	55
2. Kareem-oon-nissa Begum, daughter of Munsur-ud-Dowla by Shadi	25
3. Bhanoo Begum, wife of Munsur-ud-Dowla	7
4. Manavur Begum, daughter of Kutub-ud-Dowla	9
5. Azezunnissa Begum do. do.	9
6. Two sons of Mana Begum	9
7. Kazim Ali Mirza Khan	15
8. Abbasi Mirza Khan	15
9. Sakkena Begum	6

Children of Kutub-ud-Dowla by Mitta.

3. The Collector now reports the death of Kareem-oon-nissa Begum (No. 2) whose share was Rupees 25 a month.

4. The lapsed share is claimed by Nos. 1, 4, 5, 7 and 9.

5. Fatta Ali Khan claims the share on the following grounds, viz., that his present allowance is insufficient to support his family and to meet the charges incidental to his position as eldest son of the family, that Manavur Begum and Azezunnissa Begum are well provided for, and that the children of the Mitta branch have no valid claim under Mahomedan law.

6. Manavur Begum and Azezunnissa Begum suggest that the lapsed share be granted to Mirza Mahomed Ali Khan, husband of the deceased, and minor son of Manavur Begum. In case his claim be deemed inadmissible they request that the lapsed share may be divided between themselves as the representatives of the Shadi branch of the family and in consideration of the smallness of the shares at present held by them (Rupees 9 each).

7. Kazim Ali Mirza Khan and Sakkena Begum, of the Mitta branch, request that the lapsed share may be distributed, in proportion to their claims according to Mahomedan law, among the surviving members of the family excluding Fatta Ali Khan who, they consider, has already a larger share than he is entitled to.

8. The Collector ignores the claim of the Mitta branch. Adverting to the observation of Government in their Order, dated 12th July 1870, No. 1,042, that in all probability Fatta Ali Khan as eldest son is liable to various expenses from which other members of the family are exempt; and taking into consideration the smallness of the shares held by the members of the Shadi branch he recommends that the lapsed share should be distributed as follows:—

	RS.
Fatta Ali Khan	10
Manavur Begum	5
Azezunnissa Begum	5
Two sons of Mana Begum	5

9. Considering that Fatta Ali Khan's allowance was recently* raised to Rupees 55 and that the lapsed share belonged to the Shadi branch the Board are not disposed to support the Collector's recommendation. There has always been bitter hostility between the two branches of the family and no protection or support will be afforded to the ladies of the superior branch by the male representative of the lower one, who on the contrary has never lost an opportunity of bettering himself at their expense.

10. The Board therefore recommend that the lapsed share, Rupees 25 per mensem, be distributed among the surviving members of the Shadi branch of the family as follows:—

	RS.	A.	P.
1. Azezunnissa Begum	8	5	4
2. Manavur Begum	8	5	4
3. The two sons of Mana Begum, deceased sister of Nos. 1 and 2	8	5	4

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 3rd February 1872.

11. The arrears should, as observed by the Collector, be paid to the legal heirs of the deceased.

No. 48.
