Remarks.

A. Increase due to punctual realization of the Current Revenue.

B. Increase owing to the favorable character of the season.

C. Decrease due to failure of crops.

D. The accounts for March 1872 were closed earlier than for March 1871. In Europe diminished cultivation was an additional cause for the decrease.

E. Decrease due to the non punctual payment of rights by the ryots in consequence of the fall in prices.

Land Revenue Current (contd.)

Decrease due to Salug & Village officials having been engaged in the current Fasli.

Decrease due to diminished cultivation this Fasli. The fact that the Settlement was made later this year was also partly the cause in Trichinopoly.

Decrease partly due to slow payment of arrears, not having been completed.

Decrease due to the delay in the payment of kist for the current Fasli under the new settlement recently introduced.

Not explained.

Land Revenue Arrears.

Increase due to comparatively large arrears outstanding at the beginning of the current Fasli having been collected.

Increase due to the prompt collection of arrears from proprietary estates this year.

Decrease due to slow payment of arrears at the beginning of the current Fasli.

Decrease in consequence of the kist not having been paid in full during the current Fasli.

Decrease due to loss resulting from the resale of the land as also to irregular payment of kist.

Secretary.

Notes (Contd.)

- P. Decrease due to the non-payment of the February risk for the entire countenance.
- Q. Decrease attributed to the reduced amount for which the Ramakrishna Farm was sold, partly also to delay in the collection of risks in some Taluqs.
- R. Decrease due to large sales.
- S. Increase due to the more punctual payment of risk this year owing to the favorable outcome of the season.
- T. Decrease due to unpunctual payments.
- U. Increase due to the non-payment of the risk for the Bangalore & Udipi farms from some agents.
