 J. Bruce Esq.
 Secretary to the Board of Prison Reform

also, I have the honor to state that in the village of Heeney in Ireland there was an owner of A.S. No. a subject under name Thomas Henry a ticket for about 1870. The Commander O'Connell's services were received at A.S. No. 7 was attached about 1870 and sold on the 2nd January 1870 to one Edward Henry of A.S. No. Subsequent to the attack described and before the sale of the house the defaulter has paid the amount in question and the 1st Regt at present holds a license over it.

arrangements by which sometimes the land was notwithstanding brought to sale.

The purchase of the land in question is willing to receive back the purchase money and to give up the claim to the land.

The sale proceeds in question were brought to the credit of the land in 1874 and 1875.

The alleged account of Clark 1874 has been proved to the fact that the land was sold by the same the above circumstances the sale in question being alleged to have been a fraudulent one and that you will do your utmost to bring the proceeds of the Board to the land in question and to the persons who are entitled to it.

The Board propose to request Government to purchase the property referred to at $30.

It is observed that though the purchase money was given up the land the seller has no power to cancel the sale.
