No. 63. Read the following letter from the Under-Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Fort William, 18th December 1871, No. 2,936:—

I AM directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 1,722, dated 24 October 1871, recommending sanction to an application from the Board of Revenue that the full rate of salary, namely, Rs. 1,000 monthly, which has been sanctioned by the Secretary of State for the Board's Sheristadar may be passed to him from 5th September 1869, the date on which the present incumbent assumed charge of the office, instead of 11th August 1871, the date of the order communicating the Secretary of State's sanction, from which date the account office has passed the increase.

2. In reply, I am desired to state that His Excellency the Governor General in Council considers the Board's request to be inadmissible. There does not appear to His Excellency in Council to be any reason for allowing relaxation of the ordinary rule applicable to such increases of salary.

ORDERED that a copy of this letter be sent to the Accountant-General, Madras, for information and guidance.

No. 64. ORDER THEREON, 8th January 1872, No. 33.
