Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 6th March 1872.

No. 77. Read the following letter from the Acting Collector of Chingleput, to the Officiating Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Sydapet, 26th February 1872, No. 51:—

I HAVE the honour to request that you will be so good as to inform me whether there is any objection to my residing on the northern side of the Adyar, as at present the only house available outside the High Court limits is the very large one lately occupied by the Honourable the Governor.

2. I need hardly observe that any part of Madras is central as regards the district which surrounds the town on all but the sea-side. I understand, however, there is some question as to the High Court jurisdiction on the original side, if I usually sleep in Madras proper. I should have imagined that a person's residence as Collector would be held to be the office, where, as such, he usually transacts public business, and where the cause of action from his official acts would arise. If, however, the question is a doubtful one, I am unwilling to trouble Government, and will take the house at present available for a time.

No. 78. ORDER THEREON, 6th March 1872, No. 400.

Miscellaneous.

THE Government deem it necessary to maintain the rule that the Collector of Chingleput shall reside beyond the limits of High Court original jurisdiction.

(True Extract.)

(Signed) W. HUDLESTON,
Officiating Chief Secretary.

To the Acting Collector of Chingleput,
