Manuscript No 6574. Revenue Department

Proceedings of the Board of Revenue dated 30 September 1872.

Read the following:-
N: 222.

From, The Deputy Collector
Mannab Dutta
Burdwan.
To, The Acting Collector
Tuckinopoly

Sir, In reference to the order on on petition herewith returned from one Venkatarama Saik of Oodiarpollion, I have the honor to state.

2. About a mile from Lachak Oodiarpollion to the Northwest, within the limits of Kalamangalim, a village attached to Oodiarpollion, found there was a Choultry, built years before by petitioners' ancestors, the use of the travellers to Bangal Salem Sea. It was endowed with,

11 Enam ^{as per} 4-94 dry in the said Village.
Choultry having fallen into ruins want of care and management, Managers (Pettioners) attended before the Enam Deputy Collector who settled his salary, and endeavored muchilka binding himself to restore the Choultry to its proper condition within six months ending on the 31st March 1865. But it would appear that petitioner was unable to keep up to condition, and the matter having been reported to the Enam Commission by the Subildar on the 6th November 1868, the Enam was directed to be resumed and this has been done.
Pettioner now holds the lands on Puthuk. He has paid Surukh from Fasli 1279 amounting to Rs. 43-6.

Pettioner now prays that the Enam may be restored, as he has built the Choultry. The Choultry has been inspected by the Revenue Inspector

Inspector. It is now a strong and substantial building. Pettioner is a poor man. He is at this moment before me. He has evidently been at much pains and cost to restore the Enam. True he had failed to keep up his engagement with the Enam Deputy Collector; but this is of course what must be expected of one in his condition who undertakes a work beyond his resources. The Choultry is a very useful one, and built expressly for the public good, and as no one has been resumed, I would submit petitioner's prayer to your favourable consideration in view of restoring the Enam to the Choultry.

The Subildar's report and its Enclosures on the Subject are herewith appended.

The Sum (alluded to as Choultry which had fallen into disrepair was resumed in 1868. The Collector reports that the holder has now restored the Choultry and recommends that the Sum may be resumed. The Board
