No. 552.

CIRCULAR MEMORANDUM.

UNDER instructions from Government, that portion of paragraph 8 of the Board's Proceedings, under date 22nd February 1872, No. 357, which limits to a fixed percentage the powers of officers in regard to the infliction of fines is cancelled.

2. Collectors should however scrutinize the fines imposed by their subordinates and disallow them when excessive. They should never allow a heavy fine to be reported without full reasons being given. They should also carefully note the total amount of punishment imposed on any one officer in this way during the quarter. An aggregate of small fines is even more vexatious than the same amount imposed at one time.
