Proceedings of the Board of Trustees dated 33 September 1872

Read the following
Oct 1/83

From G. Wm. Agnew Esq
Secretary of the Board

To J. Grose Esq
Secretary of the Board of Trustees

Sir, The Librarian of the College having obtained permission for two months, I have considered necessary to put the Library in charge of an official officer, and have accordingly appointed Rev. Dr. J. W. R. to officiate as Librarian during the absence of the Librarian of the College. I have also appointed Mr. J. W. R. to take charge of the Library during the absence of the Librarian of the College.

I have the honor to be, Sir,
Your obedient servant

Remit with some the Government sanction the payment of a special gratuity allowance to R. Pakata he has been, who has passed all the tests required for the post of teacher, and has served in the teaching position for more than three years.
