

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,

19th March 1872.

No. 228. Read the following letter from the Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, (Leave and Allowances,) to the Secretary to the Government of Fort St. George, dated Fort William, 8th March 1872, No. 1,650.

I AM directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 211 of the 1st instant, and its enclosures, and in reply to state that Mr. Grigg is clearly not entitled to an extension of leave with allowances, but that he may be allowed extraordinary leave which will be without allowances.

2. The Government of India consider that it would be dangerous to admit, in relaxation of the clear literal interpretation of the rules, the argument that had Mr. Grigg obtained in different periods the amount of leave he has already enjoyed, the amount of leave he now applies for would have been admissible in a different manner. Mr. Grigg's case is one that is not unlikely to recur, and it would be unadvisable to set aside in his favour the rules at present applicable to it.

3. A copy of your letter under acknowledgment, and its enclosures, will be forwarded to the Secretary of State for information.

No. 229.

ORDER THEREON, 19th March 1872, No. 478.
