I respectfully beg to state that both the passed candidates already employed, and the servants in Government employ before 1859, who possess experience in the revenue line, do not like to take up Extra Head Gumastaships owing to the temporary nature of the work, and also on the two following grounds.

1st That the appointments are not eligible for pension.

2dly That they, the Employés, cannot revert to their former Appointments when they finish their work in the Settlement & Departments.

Passed candidates having no official knowledge in either the Revenue or the Settlement Departments are not fit to hold such appointments, and they cannot manage, or check the

the accounts which are now under preparation for introducing the new Settlements, a principal task.

I have therefore been obliged to nominate A. Jamakiramayya and I. Chinna Lakshmi Reddi, who possess some Department knowledge, to the posts and solicited their exemption from the examination rules.
