Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 17th April 1872.

No. 162.

Miscellaneous.

Dated 17th April 1872, No. 618.

THE Government observe that in January 1870 they accepted the late Mr. Boswell's offer to complete the Manual of the Nellore District, which he had already brought to a very advanced stage.

2. It was not till the following month that the Government of India objected to the system under which this Government proposed to secure a complete series of District Manuals at an individual cost of Rs. 2,500.

3. Mr. Boswell completed the task which had been entrusted to him, and the Government are bound to perform their part of the contract.

4. The sum of Rs. 2,500 will be paid to his widow in discharge of this liability.

2, Cleveland Terrace Gardens,
Kensington,
London W.

5. The Accountant-General will arrange for the remittance to Mrs. Boswell at the address noted in the margin.

W. HUDLESTON,
Officiating Chief Secretary.

To the Accountant-General.
,, the Board of Revenue.

Erd. F. R. Bantleman.

Memo

After the two Model Manuals
 (Viz of Madura) were done,
 he got called for Manuals
 from Volunteers in other districts.

Boswell undertook to do it,
 & was half through it when the Calcutta Order refused further payments.

Most of those who had Manuals in hand then dropped him, but Boswell went on & finished his.
 a very elaborate work - w^h he had desired him to take to England & strike off there.
