Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
10th January 1872.

No. 120. Read the following Proceedings of the Government of India, Department of Agriculture, Revenue, and Commerce, (Minerals and Geological Survey,) dated Fort William, 29th December 1871, No. 113:—

Read the following letter from the Superintendent, Geological Survey of India, to the Secretary to the Government of India, dated 7th December 1871, No. 231.

I HAVE the honour to forward to you herewith twenty copies of a catalogue of the Hot-springs of India, which has been compiled by me chiefly in connection with the consideration of earthquake phenomena in this country.

2. Such a catalogue, if to be considered complete, is beyond the power of any individual. Anything even approximating to an exact and complete list can only be sought from the co-operation of many persons locally acquainted with different districts. And, should the subject appear deserving of such a compilation, I would solicit the aid of the Department of Agriculture in the inquiry by circulating copies of the list as it now stands, and seeking information from local officers in the matter.

3. I shall be very thankful for any additions to the list, or for any additional information regarding those now on the list. And I shall feel obliged by your communicating to me, for embodiment in the catalogue, any such information which may be obtained.

COPY of the letter and of its enclosure forwarded to the Local Governments and Administrations noted on the margin, and to the Foreign Department for the purpose indicated by Doctor Oldham.
