PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE.

Dated

3 August 1873

Read the following

No. 1547

From

G. Van Stryen Esqre
Collector of Bellary

To

J. Rose Esqre
Secretary to the Board of Revenue
Madras

Sir,

Referring to the Board's official Memorandum No. 829 of 22nd ultimo, I have the honor to state that the only qualified available person, whom I could appoint to act as Town Sub-Magistrate, was the Head Vernacular Accountant, whose pay is Rs. 45.

2. In my opinion, the salary of the office of Town Sub-Magistrate should be Rs. 100 instead of Rs. 70, and I certainly think that no one should hold so responsible an office, even temporarily, on less than Rs. 70. The individual, whom I appointed to hold the post of Vernacular Head Accountant is temporarily, is a B.A. of the University with with no permanent appointment, and it would scarcely have been decent on my part to offer him the employment on less than the full pay attached thereto.

3. Under these circumstances, I beg the Board to request the Government to sanction the arrangement I have made.

for Collector

The Collector of Mellore has appointed his Head Vernacular Accountant to act for the Mellore Town Sub Magistrate (absent on privilege leave) and a Bachelor of Arts, holding no other appointment to act as Head Vernacular Accountant.

Mr. Vans Agnew thinks that no one holding so important an office as that of the Town Sub Magistrate should be paid less than the full pay Rs 70, and he seems to have found it necessary to offer the Bachelor

63
Bachelor of Arts the full pay of the place to which he was appointed.

The Board resolve to request Government through the Accountant General to sanction the extra charge
