

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 20th April 1872.

No. 218. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 12th April 1872, Miscellaneous No. 2,660 :—

Read the following letter from the Acting Collector of Bellary, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Bellary, 26th March 1872, No. 88.

With reference to the letter No. 100, dated 22nd instant, on the Proceedings of Government No. 118, dated 18th idem, I have the honour to state that, as reported in my letter No. 63, dated 14th instant, Krishna Devarayalu died on the 8th instant.

He was about 15 years of age, and has left no issue.

2. By his death, therefore, a male representative of the family in the direct line, ceases to exist.

3. Full reference to the family, as then existing, appears in the Proceedings of Government No. 1,416, dated 11th June 1866, and No. 1,116, dated 27th June 1871.

4. Sri Rangamma, the widow of the deceased elder brother Veera Vencata Ramarayalu, has two little daughters. She mentions that the Nizam's Government has recognized her claim to succeed to the estates on the north bank of the river. Of this fact this Office has had no intimation.

She mentions in her petition that she intends to adopt a son.

She has not done this as yet. The fact of there having been a Will made by Veera Vencata Ramarayalu is mentioned for the first time in the petition to Government now under reply.

5. The deceased younger half brother Krishna Devarayalu has left two wives, whose ages it is believed are less than his own. The fathers of these widows have on their behalf informed me that they will adopt a son. They have not done so yet.

6. The pension is hereditary, and was granted originally in lieu of offices and lands resumed. No Sanad is in existence.

7. The petition to Government, with its enclosures, are herewith returned. I also enclose one presented to me two days ago.

SUBMITTED for the information of Government, with reference to their Order quoted.

2. The Collector will be so good as to complete his inquiries, and state his opinion as to the right to succeed.

3. He should ascertain if the Nizam's Government have recognized Sri Rangamma.

No. 219. ORDER THEREON, 20th April 1872, No. 646.

Miscellaneous.

THE Government await the Collector's further report which should be submitted without delay.
