PROCEEDINGS of the MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read

Secretary to the Commission for ten of Assistant, dated 2^d August.

In acknowledging receipt of the Proceedings of Government, dated 23rd July No 830 Public Department, I have the honor by direction of the President to bring to the notice of Government that the date from which Mr In is entitled to the increased allow-would appear to be 15th June 1872 instead of September 1871.

2. The latter is the date on which that gentleman was invested with distinctly laid down by the Government of India in Resolution dated 17th June 1871 No 2990. Home Department that no Officer shall be entitled to "a higher rate of ^{pay} by reason of exercise his

higher powers unless he has passed in all the subjects of Examination by the first or second standard as the case may be.
Mr. Moore did not pass until examination last held.

In the new 7th August 1872 No 901

Ordered that the following correction be made in G.O. dated the 3rd July 1872 No 830.

For "7 September 1871" in the fifth line of paragraph 1.
