Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 1st May 1872.

No. 9. Read the following petition from BHANA GOWAN, Salt Merchant, to the care of EDULJEE COWASJEE, residing at Girgam Road, House No. 465, opposite to Lawrence Coach Factory, Bombay, to His Excellency the Right Honourable the Governor in Council, Madras, dated Bombay, 28th March 1872 :—

MOST HUMBLY SHEWETH,

THAT your petitioner most humbly begs leave to lay before your Excellency in Council the following few lines in hope of obtaining due redress.

2. That your petitioner has presented applications to the Collector of Malabar on the 14th September, as well as to the Board of Revenue on the 18th November 1871, requesting them to admit the wastage of salt (116 Indian Maunds) caused by the unexpected fall of rain. The Collector as well as the Board of Revenue have admitted the wastage of salt. The endorsements, dated the 28th October, from the Collector and the Board's No. 413, dated 5th March 1872, respectively, are herewith enclosed for your Excellency in Council's kind and favourable consideration.

3. Under the above circumstances your petitioner most humbly craves before your Excellency in Council to admit the wastage of 116 Indian Maunds, for which act of benevolence your petitioner, as in duty bound, shall ever pray.

No. 10. ORDER THEREON, 1st May 1872, No. 711.
