B.

Distribution of Reports issued under orders of other Departments of Government and by Local Governments and Administrations.

| Nature of Report. | How many copies the Departments, Local Governments, and Administrations mentioned below should send, and to whom. | | |

4. As regards reports falling under Class II. of the last-mentioned Foreign Resolution, the distribution should be regulated by the revised List B. attached to this Resolution.

5. In the distribution list prepared by the Punjab Government, two copies of the (1) Excise, (2) Income Tax, (3) Customs and Salt, (4) Registration, (5) Meteorological Reports, have been allotted to the Foreign Office over and above its declared requirements. As, however, a portion of the Province is administered by this Department, this distribution is accepted.

6. There are two publications separately noticed in paragraph 10 of Foreign Resolution of 30th October 1871, which should be distributed direct to the addressees as follows:

(I.)—Annals of Indian Administration—

		No. of copies.
(1.)	Foreign Office	2
(2.)	Mysore	16
(3.)	Hyderabad	12
(4.)	Ajmere	2
(5.)	Rajpootana	12
(6.)	Central India	12
(7.)	Munnipoor	1
(8.)	Nipal	1
(9.)	General Superintendent, Thuggee, &c.	1
(10.)	Political Agent, Turkish Arabia	1
	TOTAL ...	60

(II.)—Publications of the Geological Survey of India—

		No. of copies.
(1.)	Foreign Office	2
(2.)	Hyderabad	2
(3.)	Mysore	1
(4.)	Ajmere	1
(5.)	Rajpootana	1
(6.)	Central India	1
	TOTAL ...	8

7. There are other publications specified below, which, also, should be distributed according to the scale fixed for the reports of the Geological Survey, viz.,—

(1.) Reports of the Surveyor General's Department.*
(2.) ,, ,, Director General of Post Offices.†
(3.) ,, ,, Director General of Telegraphs.
(4.) ,, ,, Director General of Statistics.
(5.) ,, ,, Director General of Archæological Survey.

But it would be advisable that an additional number of copies should be sent to any of the Administrations, &c., whenever its interests may be more particularly concerned in any of the above-mentioned publications.

* Of reports of Trans-Himalayan discoveries and explorations, two extra copies should be furnished to the Foreign Office.

† This report falls properly with reports of other Directors General. It has accordingly been taken out of Class III.

8. And six extra copies of any publications or memoranda of a political character should be furnished to the Foreign Office.

9. Of publications falling under Class III. of Foreign Resolution of 30th October 1871, the requirements of the Foreign Office will be met by the following distribution:

(I.)—Report of the trade and resources of the Central Provinces—

	No. of copies.
Foreign Office	3
Hyderabad	2
TOTAL ...	5

(II.)—Report of the Cotton Commissioner, Central Provinces and Berars—

	No. of copies.
Foreign Office	2
Mysore	1
Ajmere	1
TOTAL ...	4

10. It is understood that the Resident at Hyderabad is furnished with a sufficient number of copies of the last report.

ORDER.—Ordered, that a copy of the foregoing Resolution be forwarded to the Departments, Governments, Administrations, and Officers noted on the margin for information and guidance.
