ORDER THEREON, 14th May 1872, No. 798E.

Miscellaneous.

THE Government regret that the Board should have permitted the appointment of Ratnasabapati Mudali as Acting Assistant Superintendent of Abkari, Madras District, after the condemnation passed on his conduct and qualifications as a Deputy-Tahsildar and Sub-Magistrate by the Sub-Collector of Chingleput, in which condemnation the Acting Collector seems to have concurred. As, however, the Board have permitted the appointment the Government will sanction its confirmation, but direct that Ratnasabapati shall not be promoted further without the special sanction of the Board.

2. The Government doubt whether Mr. Hunter-Blair could have been aware of Mr. Crole's order when he made the appointment.
