Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
23rd May 1872.

No. 243. Read the following letter from the Officiating Secretary to the Chief Commissioner of Mysore, to the Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort St. George, dated Nandidroog, 26th April 1872, No. 426-4 :—

I HAVE the honour, by direction of the Chief Commissioner of Mysore, to solicit the favour of your kindly informing him if any translation of the "Manual of the more deadly forms of Cattle-disease in India" has been made into Canarese for use in the Madras Presidency; and, if so, whether this Administration could be conveniently supplied with a few copies of the same.

No. 244. ORDER THEREON, 23rd May 1872, No. 823.

Miscellaneous.

THE Government have no intention of translating the Manual in question, believing that Mr. Thacker's Treatise on the same subject, which has been translated and is being widely distributed, furnishes all that is needful.
