

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 22nd June 1872.

No. 229. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 12th June 1872, No. 966:—

Read again Board's Proceedings, 13th November 1871, No. 4,694.

Read also the following letter from J. H. MASTER, Esq., Acting Collector of Bellary, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 18th May 1872, No. 158.

With reference to paragraph 2 of the Board's Proceedings, No. 4,694, of the 13th November last, I have the honour to submit, for favourable consideration, an application for a further sum of Rupees 10 to be granted to Komali Hanumantu in compensation for the inconvenience and loss he had been put to by the sale of his house on account of income-tax wrongly charged.

2. The purchaser of the house is willing to sell it back to Hanumantu for a sum slightly in excess of the original money.

3. The delay in this case has been caused by the absence through sickness of the purchaser whom it was necessary to consult.

The Board resolve to submit these papers for the favourable consideration of Government.

2. A man named K. Hanumantu was assessed at Rs. 27 on account of income-tax in 1870-71. He appealed, but did not appear before the revising officer when the appeal came on for hearing. The assessment was then confirmed, and the man's house was attached for arrears and sold for Rs. 22.

3. Subsequently the Head Assistant Collector found out that the man lived by selling vegetables in a small way, that he is houseless, and that he lives in the verandah of the house which was once his.

4. The Board have sanctioned the refund of Rs. 22 and have remitted the balance of the assessment, but they think the case is such a hard one that the house ought to be restored to its former owner, and that he ought to be compensated for the injury which has been done by a strict administration of the law.

5. These objects will be effected if Rs. 10 are paid to K. Hanumantu, and the Board resolve to recommend Government to sanction a grant of that amount.

No. 230. ORDER THEREON, 22nd June 1872, No. 968.

Miscellaneous.

PAYMENT of Rs. 10 sanctioned.
