rendered necessary the re-copying of certain Vernacular Quit-rent Registers. There are about 1,000 pages to be copied and examined, and the work cannot be done by the limited establishment of the department during office-hours.

2. I have, therefore, the honour to request that the Government will authorize me to incur an expenditure not exceeding Rs. 100 on this account. It will be most convenient to have the copying done by piece-work instead of on salary. The rate of payment per sheet will be fixed on fair terms, and the necessary precautions taken to ensure that the quality of the work is good before payment.

3. The charge can be met from general savings under "Administration."
