

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 26th June 1872.

No. 268. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 17th June 1872, No. 1,025 :—

Read the following letter from D. TIMAPAH, Deputy-Collector, to the Collector of Kurnool, dated Pyapalli, 13th May 1872, No. 61 :—

I HAVE the honour to report that one Sayamma, who was enjoying a Jungi Kattubady (Village Service) Inam, consisting of acres 14, cents 56 of dry land, and acres 0, cents 63 of wet land, assessment Rupees 23-12-11, and quit-rent Rupees 20, for which the Title-deed, No. 3,211, was granted, died in December 1868, without leaving any heirs behind her.

2. From an authenticated Extract from the Register of Inams, in the Village of Nossum, in the Koilkuntla Taluq, it appears that the Inam in question was originally registered in the name of one Nadigadda Venkatramudu who was appointed in 1858 to perform the services of Kattubady of the said village in behalf of the deceased Sayamma, as her Gumasta, and that the Title-deed also was issued in his name, but subsequently on her appeal, it was altered in her name in 1866, while the Title-deed remained unaltered for some cause unknown.

3. The said individual Nadigadda Venkatramudu instituted a suit against the deceased Sayamma, in the District Munsif's Court at Nandial, in Original Suit No. 589 of 1866, to establish his right and Title-deed to the land, but his claim was dismissed by the Munsif whose decision was confirmed on appeal by the Civil Judge of Nandial.

* Appeal Suit No. 42 of 1869.

4. The land in question is now in the enjoyment of one Dudi Kondappa, who was added in the suit as a supplemental defendant after the death of the deceased, and to whom the land was given over by the deceased, on condition that he should enjoy it until a debt of Rupees 200 which she had borrowed from him has been liquidated out of the proceeds of the land that fell to her share, and the quit-rent due on the land is being paid by the said Dudi Kondappa.

5. On being informed of the final decision of the Court in the suit aforementioned in June 1871, a notice† was issued inviting parties having any claim to the said land to appear and establish the same within six months, which expired on the 1st January 1872, but no claim to the land has been put forth up to this time.

6. The said Nadigadda Venkatramudu presented a petition, praying that the land in question might be given to him on putta tenure. This request cannot be taken into consideration until the land has been incorporated to Government Ayacut.

7. Under the above circumstances, I beg to request that you will have the goodness to move the Board of Revenue to obtain the orders of the Government, to have the land in question escheated, under Section 6, of Regulation VII. of 1817.

8. I beg to submit the record connected with the case, together with the Title-deed No. 3,211.

No. 165.

SUBMITTED to the Board of Revenue for the necessary sanction being obtained for resuming the Inam under Section 6. Regulation VII. of 1817. It appears from the English registers received from the Inam Commissioner's Office that the Inam was first confirmed in the name of Nadigadda Venkatramudu, as the sister's son of Sayamma. On appeal, however, it was found that Venkatramudu was only a Gumasta of Sayamma, and the Inam was accordingly registered in the name of the latter now deceased.
