	Part of the beriz of Wurg Muli No. 27, situated at Kasba Village, Mudradi Magane, in the Udipi Taluq.	Two orders were issued by Kelladi Chennamaje to one Kristappa—one on the 1st Vaishaca shudha of the year Prajothpathi, and the other on the 5th Carthica shudha of Paridhavi, in which it was stated that a land assessed at Hs. 50 had been granted as inam to one Duggamma Ballalthi on receipt from her of a Canica (present) of Hs. 60. A portion of this grant, assessed at Hs. 44-5-0, was confiscated during the governments of Hyder Ali and Tippoo, and the remainder, assessed at Hs. 5-5-0, was continued till the accession of the Company's government, when it was attached and a cash payment made instead.	For maintenance of the family of Ballal.	Chennama Ballalthi. 17th December 1871. Relationship cannot be traced out	Rupees 22 annually ; no other member enjoyed any portion of this	Age. Yrs. Kumaraiya Ballal, son of the deceased holder. 24 Cheluvamma, daughter.. 20 Kusammaje, granddaughter by Cheluvamma ... 2 Cheluvaiya, grandson by the said Cheluvamma. 1 The family possesses landed property paying an assessment of Rupees 172-5-8.	This is a personal hereditary allowance and was for merly paid in the form of deduction from assessment. It was, however, brought under regular audit in 1867 under the instructions contained in paragraph 28 of the Order of Government, dated 12th September 1867, No. 2,164. The Tahsildar reports that Kumaraiya Ballal, the deceased's son, has been duly installed by the villagers as the successor of the deceased, and, the allowance being permanent and hereditary in the family of the Ballal, I have sanctioned its continuance to the said Kumaraiya Ballal (the rightful heir of the deceased) from the date of the demise of Chennama Ballalthi, subject to the confirmation of Government, which it is requested may be obtained.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
20th September 1873.

THE Board submit the tabular statement received from the Collector of South Canara with their recommendation that the amount of the grant, which is a personal and hereditary one, be continued to Kumaraiya Ballal heir of the deceased Inamdar.

No. 154. ORDER THEREON, 20th September 1873, No. 1,009.

Miscellaneous.

Government sanction the continuance of the allowance (Rs. 22) to Kumaraiya Ballal from the date of the death of Chennama Ballalthi.

(True Extract.)

(Signed) R. A. DALYELL,
Acting Secretary to Government.

Continuance for Inam allowance in S. Canara to the son of the deceased Inamdar.

Memo for Orders

The Collector of Canara & the Board recommend the continuance of a personal hereditary grant to the eldest [redacted] of the deceased holder.

2. This was one of the grants dealt with by the Government in G.O. 2164. dated 13th Sept. 67. and was numbered 57 in Statement IV submitted by the Board. It does not however appear to have been specially noticed by either the Board or Government.

3. It is presumed that it should be continued as the others but it is observed that
