20th September 1873.*

No. 159. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 16th September 1873, Miscellaneous No. 6,015:—

Read the following letter from C. G. MASTER, Esq., Collector of Ganjam, to J. GROSE, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Chetterpore, 2nd September 1873, No. 2,058.

In continuation of my report, No. 1,952, dated 26th ultimo, I have the honour to inform the Board that there has been during the past week a good fall* of rain throughout the district, which has, at least for the present, removed the apprehension of a bad season. There has already been, it is said, some loss owing to some of the plants having withered away or been injured for want of timely rains ; but this loss is, I believe, not very material. The reports received for the last week ending 30th

August show that transplantation of paddy was briskly going on, and that the water-supply was sufficient for the present. I beg to annex notes from the last reports on the state of the season.

2. As the prospects of the weather on the day of the despatch of my last report were promising, as I stated in the postscript of that report, and as there has since been a good fall of rain, I have thought it proper to postpone the minute examination of the state of the country which I was then about to set on foot ; especially because of the grasping character of the ryots who will not fail to take every advantage of such an opportunity to withhold the payment of their dues. I have written to the divisional officers to use their discretion in the matter. So far as I can now judge, the necessity for such an examination seems to have ceased for the present.
