Read the following paper from G. VANSAGNEW, Esq., Collector of Nellore, to J. GROSE, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 30th July 1873, No. 1,706.

2 of 1873.	Nellore Huzur Treasury, Rupees 7-8-0 a month or 90 Rupees a year.	By Nabob Wallajah, under a Purwanah, dated 28th Rahbiloval of 1207 Hizri (A.D. 14th November 1792), to Meer Gulam Alli, the original grantee. No sanads are forthcoming.	Ausar Service Yeomiah, granted for maintaining certain services over a relic of Mahomed at Nellore.	Meer Hussain Alli died on the 29th December 1872. He was the son of the original grantee.	The whole of the monthly allowance, viz., Rs. 7-8-0, was enjoyed by the deceased, who was exclusive holder of the grant.	1. Rozubee, Shadee wife, 30 years. 2. Patmabee, Nikka wife, 55 years. 3. Roshambee, sister, 60 years. 4. Khan Sahib, nephew, 35 years. The 1st and 2nd were entirely under the protection of the deceased. The 3rd and 4th were separated from the deceased during his lifetime. The 3rd gets a monthly Native Fund Pension of Rs. 7 from Government; the 4th is employed as a Gumastah in the Kavali District Munsif's Court. No other means of livelihood.	This allowance of Rs. 7-8-0 a month was sanctioned to the deceased, who was the son of the original grantee, as per Order of Government, dated 29th December 1812. He was a minor at the time. He died on the 29th December 1872, leaving behind him a Shadee wife and a Nikka wife. The Tahsildar of Nellore submitted his report, dated 27th June 1873. From this it appears that the wives of the deceased have no other means of subsistence and that the [illegible]d sister's son, who is in public employ [illegible]ali District Munsif's Court do not prefer any claim to the payment. The service of Ausar consists in attending the Mosque and reading prayers, and distributing sweetmeats. In Mr. Elton's printed Register, the Ausar allowance was described as granted for maintaining certain services over a relic of Mahomed. It is reported that the services above described have been kept up. I recommend that the Yeomiah may be continued in the name of the Shadee wife, Rozubee. The Nikka wife is under the protection of Rozubee, and consents to the registering of the allowance in the name of Rozubee.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 22nd September 1873.

SUBJECT to the confirmation of Government the Board sanction the continuance of the grant to Rozubee Shadee wife of the late incumbent.
