Dated 5th August 1873.

Read the following

From No. 1068.
 J. D. Linnan Esquire
 Acting Collector of Rushmore Dist.
 To H. G. Rose Esquire
 Secretary to the Board of Revenue
 Sir,

Under a misapprehension of the C. O. dated 15th January 1873 No. 52. I entertained on the 21st March an additional clerk on 20 Rs to be employed in the Assistant's Office, instead of transferring a man from the permanent to the temporary establishment.

2. The Accountant General has called upon me to refund the 20 Rs so paid for 3 months without sanction & will further retrench me for May another Rs 20.

3. There was a saving of Rs 104⁸/₁₀ 8³/₁₀ out out of the extra expenditure sanctioned by Government in consequence of my not being able to make the appointments till a month and 23 days after sanction. Have the honor to request the Board will recommend Government to direct the Accountant General to pass the Bills for February to May inclusive

4. My error was in the first instance due to what now appears to me to be obscure wording in the L.O. quoted already.
