No. 1333.

patam on passing a successful examination in the Ooriya language, inquiries have been made by sundry officers as to the nature of the examination prescribed.

2. The President has consulted one of the best authorities on the subject, Lieutenant-Colonel R. M. Macdonald, and, agreeably to his suggestion, I am to propose that the work called "Niti Kotha" (procurable at the Government Book Depôt at Berhampore) be declared the test-book. For the rest, the candidate should further be required to pass according to the old Public Service Qualification Test in the following subjects, viz. :—

1. Written translation into English.
2. Written translation into Ooriya.
3. Written translation of sentences and answering questions on construction, &c.
4. Conversation.
6. Pronunciation.
7. Handwriting.

No. 50. ORDER THEREON, 12th February 1873, No. 152.
The Governor in Council sanctions the proposed test-book.
