Dear Capt Pitchard

I received a Dispt
from Capt for Lord Pitchard enclosing approval for circulation Thereof. I have the pleasure to transmit herewith
Dispt

I am Sir &c &c
Lieut for Secretary

and is on his way home from Bombay.
Mr. Wilson is the senior of a Subaltern - the best of his substantive abpt. by going home sick & has just returned.

I have suggested an alternative arrangement for the Protection of the port as I believe all the Europ of the port sick & withdrawn it from the Coll.

I am not however sure that they wd consider Mr.
Crow the best man for the post. I have suggested him because with the appt. his formerly held by the Assist Asstnt. or Supt of Marine from Mr. Blair's late action the working of Mr. Crichton's hands working into closely by the Collector: the interests of the Emigration agent are in great measure opposed to
