R. W. LODWICK, Acct.-Genl.Fort St. George, Acct.-Genl.'s Office, 14th October 1873. | Required for the custody of the records of the Madras Deputy-Collector's Office. These important records, of nearly a century old, appertaining to the Registration, Quit-rent, and Abkari Departments, were recently arranged by means of a temporary establishment; and the Government, after the fullest inquiry, are satisfied that they cannot be kept in due order without a special agency. As some set off against the expense, private parties, who examine records at the Deputy-Collector's Office, are to be charged a fee of 1 Rupee for the inspection of each document or set of documents, and an additional fee of 8 Annas a-day if the inspection be extended beyond one day. |

These important records of Land Registration, Land-Cust and Treasury Department, are daily referred to by the Revenue Authorities, and by persons interested in them; and before the Inspection Enquiry are completed it is necessary that they should be kept in the office without a special establishment. As there will be a considerable amount of fees to be realized at the Deputy Collector's office, it is proposed that a fee of 1 Rupee be charged for the inspection of each document or set of documents, and an additional fee of 8 Annas a day if the inspection be extended beyond one day. | |
