To

The Right Honorable The Governor in Council

May it please your Excellency

I respectfully beg to enclose the endorsement to my Petition to the Board of Revenue praying against the order of suspension and deprecating the harshness of the order which has been ruled against me to my serious detriment and prejudice.

I have very respectfully to submit that the order of the Board has the effect of very prejudicially affecting my prospects and I leave it to you to determine whether such an insult, as it has been my misfortune to bring to your notice is to be glossed

From C Bhogaspa, Treasurer
Collectors Office. Bellary

Submitting the endorsement on his petition to the Board of Revenue appealing against the order of suspension, states that the Board's order has the effect of very prejudicially affecting his prospects.

Leaves it to Government to determine whether such an result, as it has been his misfortune to bring to their notice, is to be glossed over by the Board.-

Order.

The Government will not interfere

Lal

Peter: rules holders the responsible position of each taluq per, or three several days absented himself from office without obtaining the permission of the assistant collector, who in the collectors absence was in charge of that office, though the Dept: collector directed him to do so.

2. For this misbehaviour: dination for depriving bofore an explanation when asked does by the Asst: Collector he was suspended for one month by the Collector of the District.

3. Absent Non Jurors:
: must be appealed to the Board who
"appoint the Collector Section."

4. Pstr: endeavours to screen himself by calling attention to the Asst: Collector
having called him a "Scoundrel".

5. This was unfortunate the case but the Coll: in his order states that the Assistant Coll: has expressed his regret and it is to be observed that the word was used after Pstr: had shown a studied disregard of the Asst: Coll: & audibly by neglecting to obtain his permission for being absent from office thro' the time told to do so by the Asst:
Collector

6. Pstr: also charges the Asst: Coll: with a "long course of insult" the Coll: "does not believe a word of it" and nothing is adduced to support it.

7. It is observed that the lawsuit in which Pstr: absented himself is described as his own.

It would therefore appear as though Pstr: feeling Government cash were not his only occupation nor the one he considered most worthy of attention.

Lee

I am indebted to Mr. Hall for the man has been rather badly dealt with. He owned a saddler legal summons, & did not ask leave of the Coll: & A. Coll: because they were rather difficult to see: but he did state he'd in the way of explaining by leaving the summons at the head Clerk
the Asst Collector

evidential and must rebut & embracing Correspondence: which pass, some colour to the Petitioners statement that he was afraid (he might be fearful personal violence) to give the explanation when required by the Collector. Order.
We see no reason for saying, that nothing can now be done, beyond recommending to the Sec. Collector or to this Court. I presume the Petr's respective is at an end.

Read petition No 1384 of 1873, dated 26th May 1873 from C. Bhogappa, Treasurer, in the Collector's Office at Bellary

1. Resolved that the following endorst be passed on this petition

"The Govt in Council
"declines to interfere with
"the orders already passed "in the matter herein referred "to by the Collector of Bellary
"and the Board of Revenue".

2. The Board of Revenue will, however, be requested to intimate to Mr Davies through the Collector of Bellamy, that it is much to be regretted that he should have so far forgotten himself as to apply an opprobrious epithet (Rebt) to a native officer of good position in the Collector's Office
