dated 11th June 1873

No. 94

From,

J. Lee Warner Esquire
Special Assistant Collector
Ramnad

To,

W. McLuhae Esquire
Collector of Madura

Sir,

I have the honor to submit my application for three months' privilege leave, as soon after the middle of June, as it will be convenient to the Court of Wards to let me have it. You are aware, that I was anxious to go to England in March; but the death of the late Zemindar threw every thing into such confusion, that I cancelled my application. In July, August and September there is not much correspondence from the Talooks; and the commencement of the rains in August prevents much going on circuit. The chief work of these months is the collection of the price of the Melwaram paddy, which is settled for all Talugs on the first of June. The Guardian will have thoroughly got into his work, before the time I should propose to avail myself of the leave, if granted. I am so anxious to have this leave, which I may state, that I really want, after the last four months trouble, that I am willing to give up one hundred and fifty

Rupees

Rupees a month of my salary, to be added to the salary of my Sheristadar for the extra responsibility involved in taking charge of the whole work during my absence, if no other plan can be advised. I would not propose, that he should change his title; and any knotty question would of course be referred to you for settlement. If I have not been able to get the material in for a Jaminabundy report, before I leave, I would prefer, if possible, that it should be left till I return. I may mention that, if I can proceed to England now for one month, I hope to be able to serve on in India for another year or two years, before I take my furlough. I have perfect confidence, that my Sheristadar will give satisfaction: and it will be absolutely useless in my opinion to put any other native Officer over him for the short period of three months.

I have &c

(Signed) J. Lee Warner
Special Assistant Collector

Declaration

I, John Lee Warner of the Madras Civil Service hereby declare that I have no present intention of taking any sort of leave, furlough, privilege or special within three months of my return from the privilege leave, which I am now seeking for.

Special Assistant Collector

No 163. | True Copy |

Submitted for the orders of the Court of Wards.

The

The only objection to leaving Ramnad without a responsible Manager for three months is that all the Cowle tenures are in a state of confusion and the time of one officer would be nearly occupied for many months in collecting the information necessary to enable the Court of Wards to deal with each of these tenures on its own merits. The Assistant Collector who has heavy magisterial and Municipal work is also going on leave. The Head Assistant Collector can give no assistance, for his time is fully occupied and he is the officer before whom all Ramnad rent recovery suits are pending. In these circumstances the appointment of an Acting Special Assistant is recommended. Government might fairly pay Mr. Lee Warner's absentee allowances for that portion of his privilege leave which he earned in the pay of Government.
