Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 6th November 1873:

No. 20. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 25th June 1873, No. 1,103 :—

Read the following letter from G. D. LEMAN, Esq., Acting Collector of the Kistna District, to J. GROSE, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Masulipatam, 21st May 1873, No. 806.

I HAVE the honour to report the death, on 20th April 1873, of Rajah Manuri Venkata Gopalarao, ex-Zemindar of Sattanapalli, who was in the receipt of a monthly pension of Rs. 300, sanctioned in Extract Minutes Consultation, dated 8th November 1845, No. 1,295.

2. The deceased has left two sons, Venkata Sashachalapatyrao and Venkata Bhuzungarao. They claim the allowance, and request that it may be renewed in the name of Venkata Sashachalapatyrao.

3. The enclosed is the pedigree of the family, and their history is as follows:—

4. The permanent settlement of Sattanapalli estate was made with Venkataramanayarao(A) in 1802. He gave up the management to his son Appajirao(B).

5. On the death of Appajirao(B) in 1810, Venkataramanayarao(A), his father, representing himself to be incapacitated by grief from active exertion, requested that the estate might be taken under the Court of Wards. As the estate was encumbered, this was refused, and he lived till the beginning of 1816, paying the peishcush with difficulty.

6. A few days before his death, Venkataramanayarao(A) rented the whole estate to Patri Kistnaya, who had latterly managed his affairs. The rent was confirmed by the Court of Wards on whom the charge of the property devolved during the minority of Venkatarao(D), grandson of Venkataramanayarao(A) who was the next heir.

7. The renter having allowed the peishcush to fall in arrears, the estate was attached in 1817, and taken under direct management of Government.

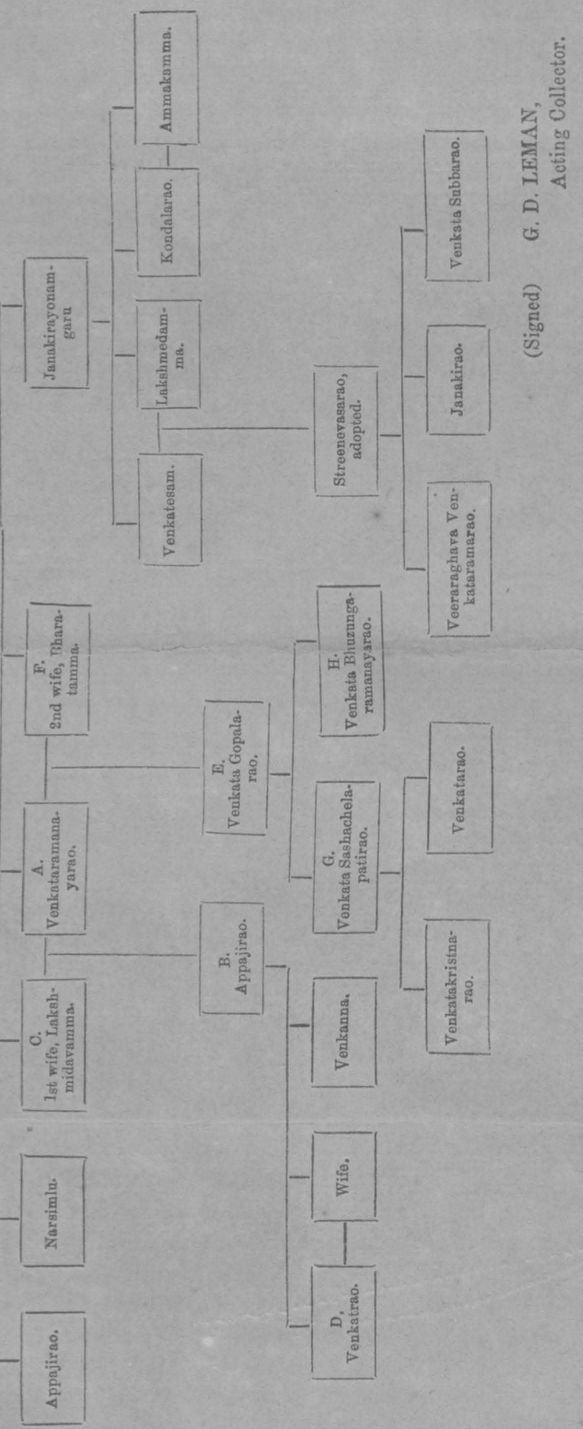

8. The minority of Venkatarao(D) expired in 1820, when the Zemindari was made over, and it continued in his possession till its attachment for arrears a few weeks before his death in 1834. The succession was then contested by the widow of Venkatarao(D) and Venkata Gopalarao(E), who had been asserting his claim to the property during the preceding fourteen years.

9. On the death of the widow of Venkatarao(D) soon afterwards, the claim of Venkata Gopalarao(E) was recognized, and the attachment withdrawn. Up to the year 1843, this individual(E) managed the estate, but no better than his predecessor, and it was attached for arrears of peishcush. A monthly allowance of Rs. 300 was granted to him in 1845, and in the year 1846 the estate was sold for arrears and purchased on account of Government.

10. This is one of the estates quoted by the Board in Proceedings of the 14th August 1872, No. 1,581, in the case of which an assurance was given that a sufficient maintenance would be allowed to the persons who were dispossessed; and I would, therefore, recommend that the full amount of Rs. 300 a-month, as the petitioners request, be continued in the name of Rajah Manuri Venkata Sashachalapatyrao from the date of his father's death.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.

Sattanapalli Zemindari.

(Signed) G. D. LEMAN,
Acting Collector.

THE case of the heirs of the deceased ex-Zemindar of Sattanapalli is, as the Collector observes, strictly parallel with that of the heirs of the Vasareddi and Chelakalurpad houses.

2. In the Board's Proceedings of the 14th August 1872, No. 1,581, the reasons for their opinion that these pensions should not lapse are given at length, and they now recommend that the Sattanapalli pension be renewed in the name of Venkata Sashachalapatyrao.

No. 21. ORDER THEREON, 6th November 1873, No. 1,240.

Miscellaneous.

THE continuance of the Sattanapalli pension of Rs. 300 per mensem in the name of Venkata Sashachalapatyrao from the date of the death of his father is sanctioned.

In Govt. Mems: Occ: No. 1295, dated 8th November 1845, the Government sanctioned an allowance of 300 Rupees per mensem to Venkata Gopalarao Zemindar of Sattanapalli in the Guntoor District whose estate had been attached for arrears of Peshcush. The estate appears to have been sold in the following year and bought for Government.

2 Venkata Gopalarao drew his allowance until the 20th April last when he died leaving two sons who claim the allowance and desire it should be continued in the name of the elder Rajah Mantri Venkata Sachachalapatyrao.

3. The Collector and the Board recommend that the allowance should be so continued. Both say this case is strictly parallel with that of the heirs of the Vasaredoli family in which Government recently recommended the continuance to an adopted son of the balance of the allowance not continued to the widow.
