No. 115. Read the following letter from H. E. SULLIVAN, Esq., Acting Collector of South Arcot, to the Hon. R. A. DALYELL, Acting Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Cuddalore, 15th October 1873, No. 63 :—

THE Head Assistant Collector reports that in the village of Parumbakum, in Villapuram Taluq, the pariah population are completely excluded from access to their burying ground, in consequence of the land over which the right of way runs having been assigned on putta at a very remote date, and the present occupant having recently refused to allow any passage, or to give up the land.

2. Until recently the path-way was left open by the owners, but the present occupant, Kodialum Ragava Iyengar, who appears to be a churlish character, has closed it, and refuses to make any concession. Under these circumstances, the only alternative is to proceed under Act X. of 1870, and I have, therefore, the honour to request that Government may be pleased to direct the publication of the preliminary declaration under Section 6, draft of which is enclosed.

3. I also request that the Head Assistant Collector may be vested with the powers of a Collector under the Act, and be authorized, under Section 7, to take order for the acquisition of the land.

No. 116. ORDER THEREON, 22nd November 1873, No. 1,287.

Miscellaneous.

REFERRED to the Board of Revenue for report (in communication with the Advocate-General, if necessary) as to whether the right of way in question could not be upheld by a more simple procedure than that recommended by the Collector.
