Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
31st January 1873.

No. 262. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 13th January 1873, No. 41.

Read the following letter from T. A. N. CHASE, Esq., Collector of Kurnool, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 6th December 1872, No. 322:—

I HAVE the honour to report the death, on 11th January 1872, of Bada Chinnama Naick, pensioner of Dodikonda, Pattikonda Taluq, (Schedule B.-I.), in receipt of Rupees 43-12-0 a month under Order of Government dated 19th August 1817.

2. Under the Order of Government quoted a pension of Rupees 87-8-0 was granted to Bada Chinnama Naick (deceased) and Chota Chinnama Naick, sons of Perumal Naick, Poligar of Dodikonda. The nature of the pension I cannot ascertain from the Order itself, as I have not been able to get a copy of it from the Collector of Bellary, who informs me that it was returned to the Board with letter dated 16th November 1818. But I thought it unnecessary to send to the Board of Revenue for it, as the Collector has furnished me with the subsequent correspondence, which clearly shows that the pension is not hereditary.

3. The deceased and Chota Chinnama Naick enjoyed the pension separately in equal shares, and on the death of the latter, on 8th May 1846, the Collector of Bellary, in recommending* that his share of the pension be continued to his son Venkatappa Naick, did not base the claim on the ground that the pension was hereditary, but merely stated "that the allowance was originally recommended for the support of the sons and the family, and having been granted and enjoyed as such, it appears reasonable that the pension possessed by one of the sons (now dead) should be renewed in the name of his heir." The subject was referred to the Government of India, who sanctioned† the recommendation. Venkatappa Naick now enjoys the pension of Rupees 43-12-0 granted him under that Order.

* Letter, dated 2nd March 1847, to the Board of Revenue.

† Letter, dated 12th June 1847, to the Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, communicated in Order of Government dated 29th idem, No. 749.

4. The remarks made by the Collector of Bellary in his letter dated 2nd March 1847, apply also to the pension of the deceased, and show that it is not hereditary.

5. The deceased left three daughters and one Venkatappa Naick (second son of Venkatappa Naick referred to in paragraph 3), who claims to be his adopted son.

6. Of the daughters, two have laid no claims to the pension, though they were present at their father's death, because the families of their husbands are in good circumstances. The other daughter of the deceased, not by regular marriage, but by a ceremony equivalent to it, is Pedda Timmakka, a widow of fifty years of age. Her husband died long ago, and she has ever since been under the protection of the deceased. She has now no means of support. I would recommend that the Government of India be moved to grant her an allowance of Rupees 10 a month for her maintenance.

7. I am unable to make any recommendation in favour of Venkatappa Naick, whose father is in receipt of Rupees 43-12-0 a month, as stated in paragraph 3. He can produce no documents to prove his adoption, nor has any intimation on the subject ever been given to the public authorities. There is only oral evidence in support of his statement. He performed the funeral ceremonies of the deceased.

SUBMITTED for the favourable consideration of Government.

2. The deceased was the son of the Poligar of Dodikonda whose Poliem was confiscated, and who was placed in confinement in 1805, in consequence of rebellious proceedings and outrages committed by him. After his death in prison in 1816, a pension of 25 Pagodas was granted to his sons in equal shares.

3. The pension was evidently a charitable grant, and is rightly described as not hereditary; and the share of the brother of the deceased was continued for life only to his son in 1847. The Board, however, support the Collector's recommendation for the continuance of a portion of the share enjoyed by the deceased Bada Chinnama Naick to his daughter who has no means of support.

Submitting for the favorable consideration of Government, recommendation of Collector for continuance of Rs 10, out of the Poligar Pension amounting to Rupees 43-12-0 per mensem enjoyed by deceased Bada Chinnamma Naick of Kurnool District, to Pedda Timmakka, daughter of the deceased. } R. E. 13th January 1873 No 41

I am rather disinclined to give the 10 Rs. leaving the 2 legitimate daughters unable to claim.

I agree. The Collector reports that the ceremony by Patrick the deceased married Pedda Timmakka, Pedda Timmaka's mother was "Equivalent to a regular marriage"

The Government see no reason to recommend the continuance of any portion of the lapsed pension to the daughter of the deceased pensioner, ~~not by regular marriage but by concubinage~~. She is admitted to be illegitimate, her mother never having been regularly married to the deceased
