Minute by the Irish Member of the Board of Revenue on Board's Proceedings 27 May 1878 No 755

I record a dissent from these Proceedings because they seem to me to proceed on a misconception of the position taken up by the Marava Tenantry in Tinnevelly. I do not regard the litigation there as conducted in good faith on the part of the tenants. Nor do I look upon their refusal of puttas as the natural consequence of objections real or imaginary to certain items in the putta.

The splitting of puttas proposed by the Board would certainly remove the institution fee but it would amount almost to an abuse of the putta system and a contumacious tenant might compel the Landlord to divide one putta into ten smaller ones

I need only here repeat that I think the remedy, so far as we can apply one, lies in making the Collector's decision final and the Consequent procedure summary.
