The family live at Jellipputy in Oodoompeltah Taluk.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 4th February 1873.

Submitted for the orders of Government.

2. Mallayappa Naick, whose death is now reported, was a descendant of the Poligar of Chinnohovady in the Coimbatore District. He held an allowance of Rupees 42-14-10 per annum sanctioned in G. O., dated 9th March 1865, No. 516.

3. The history of the Poligar pensions of Coimbatore is given in Board's Proceedings, 22nd October 1866, on which Government decided* that they are not hereditary and should be gradually reduced as circumstances permit.

4. The deceased has left a widow and four young children, and it is reported that they have no means of subsistence except the pension. Under these circumstances and adverting to the small amount of the allowance, the Board support the Collector's recommendation that it be continued in full to the widow Moottammal.

No. 11. ORDER THEREON, 4th February 1873, No. 133.
