PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE.

Dated 3rd July 1873.

cr. 298.

Read the following

From,

Henry Sewall Esq^r, Off. Collector of North Arcot.

To

J. Grose Esq^r,
Secretary to the,
Board of Revenue,
Madras.

Sir,

Dated 15th January
1873, no 52.

Under a misconception of the orders of Government communicated with Board's Proceedings dated 20th January 1873, Miscellaneous no 324, the Collector Mr. Whiteside entertained two clerks one on Rs. 40 and another on Rs. 20 to do duty under the passed assistant attached to this district. At that time there was already a vernacular clerk on Rs. 35 entertained under the Government Order dated 4th January 1867, no 35, as there were then more than one assistant attached to the district. As the former did not expressly cancel the latter Government Order,

Vide also G.O.
dated 20th June 1867, no 1365.

Mr.

Mr. Whiteside was of opinion as would appear from the instructions sent by him to the Treasury Deputy Collector that the Vernacular Clerk on Rs 35 should likewise be maintained.

2. The Board's Proceedings ^{dated} 1873, embodying the Government Order, dated 27th March 1873, which explains the meaning of the G.O. first referred to above reached me at Wandewash where I was engaged in the Jamabandi settlement of that Taluk on the 5th ultimo. A spare copy of the order was sent to the Treasury Deputy Collector in due course whereupon some correspondence passed between that Officer and myself on the subject of dispensing with the services of the temporary clerks on Rs 35 & 20 respectively. As my final instruction to the Treasury Deputy Collector reached him at the end of the month, the clerks were necessarily kept on till that time, their services being dispensed with from the 1st instant.

I

3. I have the honor under these circumstances to request that the Board will be pleased to move Government to authorize the Accountant General to pay the salary paid to these two clerks up to the end of April 1873.
