The humble petition of Chengalvala Chalamayya
Clerk in the Head Asst Collector's Office

Most Honored Sir,

With due respect and submission I humbly beg leave to lay before your honour the following few lines,

I am the petitioner
Revenue Clerk in your office

I have been in this post since 1st January 1867. I have passed the Special Test in Telugue but to pass in English branch also, I find little leisure to acquire sufficient knowledge of English.
You are well aware of the the presence of work in the office and the variety of business that passes through my hands.
I understand English and peruse records according to the instructions given in the

Collectors letters and Board's Proceedings and Gazette orders &c and though I have been in my present situation for upwards of 6 years, I have had no promotion, because I have failed to test. I can easily pass any test in Telugue and request your honour will kindly take up the cause of your poor servant and obtain sanction for my passing the Special Test

From

To. W. S. Tasker Esquire Ag Collector of the Godaneey District

Sir, I have the honour to for ward a Petition from N. Sabi:
ha Rao, a clerk of my office, praying that he may be Exempted from passing the General Test Examination under the circumstan:
:ces therein related.
2- His plea that the amount of office work he has to do, leaves him no time for private study, I believe to be well founded. You are aware that previous to the changes that were made in February 1872 in the Divisional charges of the District, the Head Apisdant had only two Talugs and that he then had a third Talug added to his Division without any increase to his Establishment.

His Division does not fall far short of that of the Sub Collector While the latter has got two Delta and an Aplan's Talugs, the Head Apisdant has one Delta and two Aplans. The Establishment of the two offices is as follows.

Head Apisdants

1 Head Clerk on Rs 70
1 2d or Magisterial Clerk } on Rs 25
2 Apisdant Clerks on 15 Rs each } " 30
Rs 125

Sub Collectors

1 Sheristadar. on Rs 150
1 Vernacular Head Clerk } on Rs 50
1 English or Magisterial Clerk. } on Rs 35
1 Apisdant English Clerk } on Rs 20
1 Head Gumastah or Accountant under the Sheristadar } on Rs 30 1 Clerk on Rs 20. under the Sheristadar } Rs 20
2 Apisdant Clerks under D on 15 Rs Each } Rs 30

There are eight in the Sub Collectors office against 4 in mine and they are better paid, and so presumably better qualified men. The difference in the amount of work is hardly perceptible or at all events very disproportionate to the difference of establishments

I have been in charge of the Subdivision on two occasions, and found little difference.
The Consequence is that the Clerks of this office are very hard worked. I therefore request that you will be pleased to take his Circumstances into favorable Consideration and obtain Sanction for his Exemption from the Examination.

I have &c a

Sir,

I have the honor to forward herewith copy of a letter from the Head Assistant Collector dated 14th instant recommending the exemption of Nerra Kanti Subba Rau, a Clerk of his Office from the General Test.

2. Subba Rau's services begin from March 1858 and excluding a few breaks amounting in all to about 2½ years, extend over a period of a little short of 13 years. The man is very useful in the Office wherein he serves, and as Mr. Pearse states, he has hardly time to study for the General Test. As I have before said the

the General Test is of no use whatever to a man who has had several years official experience, and I strongly recommend Subba Rao's exemption from the test in question.

3. I also forward an application from Ch. Chelamayya for allowed to pass Special Tests in Telugu. I should be glad to see him allowed to pass in Telugu instead of English as there is a great deal of work in the Head Assistants Office, and I would rather have men that know their ordinary duties than men who can write a little English. But I can advance no other reasons for allowing this to Chelamayya.

Nettakanti Subba Rau entered the service prior to 1859 and would therefore be entitled to exemption from the General Test if it were not for the break in his service of 2½ years. As he is stated to be fully employed and a useful servant, the Board consider that his case deserves the favorable consideration of Government.

They can address no recommendation on behalf of the other clerk named by the Collector.-
