My Dear Mr. Weston,

To prevent any possible misunderstanding I write you a line to inform that Sewall the Acting Sec. of the Dist. engaged on the 19th inst. and Wilkinson happened to be in Chittown making the settlement of that I wish I therefore placed him temporarily in charge of the necessary work considering that I was there by giving over to him charge of the Dist.

I explain this in case it might be supposed I was guilty of any irregularity in handing over charge to a junior Officer while a senior was in the Dist.

10/11
We have had a very good run down the coast so far. ~~but~~ but 2 Hatter have taken place on board since we left headrow & there are 2 others who they say, will hardly live to get home. I got the parcel all right and will not forget to send it on to the Messrs. Dutton where I receive in London.

Yr very sincere
W. R. Chittenden
