Miscellaneous No 4107.

Proceedings of the Board of Revenue dated 21st October 1873.

Read Proceedings of the Madras Government Revenue Department, dated 8th October 1873, No 31, authorizing Accountant General to pay the pay of the Police guards employed in the Madras Salary Treasury, and requesting the Board of Revenue to state whether any arrangement had been made for postponing Arakari collections during holidays in the current Season.

Communicated to the Collector of Madras.

2. With reference to para 2 Government will be informed that under Board's Proceedings of April 1873, No 563, the Board sanctioned an alteration in the form of the Arack retail license, the Deputy Collector having stated that during holidays in the current current Trade liquor would be issued every second day. The collections can then be forwarded to the Bank the same day. -
