Note.

1. One In. Bibi, a Dehat Inamdar in the North Arcot District was in receipt of a 1/6 share of an allowance granted in Extract from: Govt. 1288 dated 3rd October 1854.

2. As she failed to appear and draw her allowance for some years, an inquiry was instituted in the year 1863 when it was discovered that she had died on the 23rd February 1867.

3. The date of her death is proved by the Hurmums register.

4. She left a son and a daughter. The former says he applied at once through the Village officers for certain arrears of allowance due to his mother, but did not go to the Tahsildar direct.

5. It seems that Mr. P. B. B. draws no allowance after the 1st of October 1865, and the Collector, supported by the Board of Revenue, recommends that the arrears of the deceased's allow-ance from that date to the day of her death, be paid to her son.
