Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department,
25th March 1873.

No. 127. Read the following letter from the Acting Inspector-General of Police, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Coimbatore, 14th March 1873, No. 914:—

I have the honour, with reference to G. O., No. 125, of 24th January 1873, Judicial Department, to submit the following report on the Police Station at Cuddapah.

2. The building was originally intended for the use of the Town Police Amin or Sub-Magistrate, by whom it was used from 1857 to 1869, when he moved into another, making it over to this Department. It appears to have been transferred to the Municipality of Cuddapah, under G. O., No. 1039, of 22nd August 1867, and to have been re-transferred to the Police in 1871, under G. O., No. 583, of 3rd May of that year.

3. The marginal sketch ground-plan shows the arrangements. On one side (No.

1) is the Inspector's room, 16 × 12 feet. No. 2 is a space, as shown, 22 × 16, forming the Station-house and open in front. No. 3, a room forming the lock-up and similar to that of the Inspector.

4. The building is quite unsuited for the requirements of a Modern Police Station-house; but in other respects it seems as good, if not better, than most of the other public buildings in this town, the nature of which must be seen to be of the district, as well as other local causes, seem to have prevented as much being done in the way of official buildings here as have been elsewhere successfully undertaken.

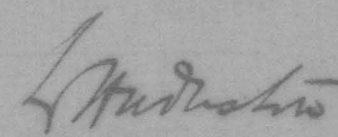

5. Referring to G. O., No. 73, of 20th January, in the Revenue Department, I have to express my regret at having failed to make myself understood when, with reference to Constable No. 277 having been dismissed and not criminally prosecuted, I said I doubted "if a more severe punishment would have been judicially awarded." What I intended to convey was that, in the event of the Magistrate having fined the man or sentenced him to simple imprisonment, which would almost certainly have been the case, the Constable would not necessarily, under existing rules, have been likewise dismissed the service, sentences of rigorous imprisonment alone entailing removal.

No. 128. ORDER THEREON, 25th March 1873, No. 469.

Communicated to the Revenue Department.

2. The Government think it undesirable to incur any expenditure that can be avoided on public buildings at Cuddapah, as they are most anxious to transfer the head-quarters of the district to a more healthy station. The Collector will again be directed by the Board of Revenue to expedite the submission of his report on the subject.
