

No. 178. Read the following Despatch of the Secretary of State for India, (Read by the Governor in Council) 23rd January 1873, No. 2:-

At Honourable the Secretary of State for India Office, London,

THE Despatch of your Excellency dated 19th November, No. 34 of 1872, forwarding a memorial from C. Iyengar, formerly a Tahsildar in the Tanjore District, in which he requests his dismissal from his appointment, has been considered by me.

2. I have carefully considered the correspondence forwarded with the Despatch of your Excellency's Government. I am of opinion that the Memorialist has been properly dismissed. I shall therefore, interfere in his favour, and desire that he may be so informed.
