	Poligar pension drawn from the Taluq Treasury of Kudlighi in the Bellary District, Rupees 590-10-0 per annum at Rupees 49-3-6 per mensem. 590-10-	Under the orders of Government, dated 26th August 1841, communicated in the Board's letter, dated 6th September of the same year, the pension was continued to Siddu Lingappa Naik. The Poligar in whose name the pension was granted in 1820 was Bommal Naik— Vide letter from the Secretary to the Board of Revenue to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated 25th September 1820, No. 454. Letter in reply from the Secretary to Government, to the President and Members of the Board of Revenue, dated 17th October 1820, No. 676.	Pension granted to the family of the Poligars of Jaramali in Kudlighi Taluq in lieu of the resumed lands and privileges formerly enjoyed by the Poligars.	Siddu Lingappa Naik died on the 23rd September 1872, the grandson of Bommal Naik entered in column 3.	Entire pension was enjoyed by him and the individual members of his family.	1. Siddapah Naik, aged [illegible] years. 2. Siddapah Naik, son of Venkar Naik, the younger brother of the deceased Siddu Lingappa, aged 25. 3. Govindamma, the 2nd widow of the said Venkaru Naik.	This is a pension granted for the support of the Poligar's family in lieu of the resumed lands and other privileges formerly held by them. Such pensions are always considered hereditary. The amount enjoyed by the deceased has been continued by the British Government for three generations. The present claimant is the son of the deceased, and he has a family to support as shown in column 7. This family has no other means of subsistence. I therefore recommend that the pension may be continued to the claimant Siddapah Naik.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 7th March 1873.

SUBJECT to the confirmation of Government the Board sanction the registration of the grant in the name of Siddapah Naik, son of the deceased.

2. As observed by the Collector the Poligar pensions of the Ceded Districts are considered hereditary. Moreover the hereditary character of this particular grant was recognized by Government in G. O., dated 17th October 1820, No. 676.
