SIR,—I am directed to request the sanction of the Government of India to an increase which it is proposed to make to the salary of Mr. Rundall, an Uncovenanted Officer serving in the Revenue Settlement Department in this Presidency as a Deputy-Director of Settlement, on a salary of Rs. 700 per mensem.

2. Mr. Rundall is now in charge of the North Arcot Settlement Party; but as it is proposed to introduce the revised settlement of a portion of the Nellore District (which is likely to result in an annual increase of revenue amounting to upwards of a lakh and-a-half of rupees) in the coming revenue-year, and as Mr. Rundall has special knowledge both of the district and the new Settlement, it is deemed advisable to commit to him the task of introducing this settlement, without prejudice to his present duties.

3. As this arrangement will save the expense of employing a Covenanted Director of Revenue Settlement, on a salary of Rs. 1,200 per mensem, and as it will involve a considerable increase to Mr. Rundall's work, it is proposed to raise his salary to Rs. 1,000 per mensem.

4. Mr. Rundall has served more than twelve years in the department. He has had much experience, and has shown considerable ability in the discharge of his duties.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

(Signed) R. A. DALYELL,
Acting Secretary to Government.
