FORWARDED to the Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, with reference to the Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, No. 7,189, dated 28th ultimo.

No. 103. ORDER THEREON, 15th January 1873, No. 50.

Miscellaneous.

19th October last.

IT was stated in an article in the Madras Times, entitled "Disestablishment in India" that "the Government do not help to support the religions of the country, and therefore the people may think that they ought not to pay towards the religion of the rulers."

2. The truth is that while the British Government has not alienated revenue for the support of the religions of the country, they maintain what was alienated by their Native predecessors. In some cases the land has been resumed and cash payments substituted; but the grand result is as under—
