Sir, I have the honr to bring the following circumstances to your notice and if you agree with me that the villages in question to should have their Taluks interchanged, that you will be good enough to make the necessary application.

2 The Ag. Dy. Tahsildar of Salur in his azee dated 5th Instant No 39 states, that in the list of villages of his Taluk, there appears a village by name Bhairipuram which is near Pedapenki of the Bobili Taluk, 24 miles distant from Salur; that formerly Pedapenki and Bhairipuram near it were in Salur Taluk; but in the arrangement of Taluks, Pedapenki was transferred to Bobili, that instead of Bhairipuram near it, another Bhairipuram, an agraharam near Nakkapalli was also included in Bobili; that great inconvenience is experienced in the preparation of Extent accounts and also in the disposal of Magisterial business in consequence of Bhairipuram near Salur being under the juris-dictio

-diction of the Bobili Dy. Tahsildar, and Bhairipuram near Bobili being under the Dy. Tahsildary of Salooy and request that an order be issued trans-ferring Bhairipuram near Pedapenki to Bobili Taluk and that near Makkuva to Salur Taluk.

3 The Descriptions of the villages are given below.—

Names of Villages	To what Taluk at present attached	To what Taluk it is desirable that it be transferred	Reasons for transfer.
Bhairipuram near Pedapenki Ra—	Salur	Bobili	as stated in paragraph 2
