

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 28th May 1873.

No. 212. Read the following Proceedings of the Court of Wards, dated 24th
March 1873, No. 447:—

Department, dated 27th February 1873, ings of the Board of Revenue r der of two-fifths share in, and the arrangements proposed for the management of, Kadalagudi Zemindari in the Tinnevely District.

COMMUNICATED to the Collector of Tinnevely.

2. The Board, however, submit to Government that Section 20 implies by the words "one or more of such possessors" that some at least of the possessors are sui juris, and the power of the Court of Wards to assume management, therefore, excluded; whereas in the present case the heirs are all minors. Further, they form an undivided family; and the High Court have expressed the opinion that the words "joint possessors" in Section 20 do not include coparceners (G. O., 1st February 1872, No. 203).

No. 214.

Miscellaneous.

ORDERED to be recorded.
