No. 32.

From

W. J. Whiteside Esquire
Acting Collector of North Arcot

To

J. G. Esquire
Secretary to the Board of Revenue
Madras.

Sir,

I have the honor to state that one Ruttahetty Ghense Sahib who held the Village of Samarasikott in Andiathum Taluk, as Khyat Jaghir, died on the 22nd July of Sadli 1251 without issue, and the Jaghir was then resumed. The choultry occupied by him in the Village is in ruins, and there are none to keep it in repair for the use of the public, and no body claims it.

2. The materials of the building, and the utensils &c. left by the deceased, are worth Rs. 105-2-0— as per Copy of report herewith submitted.

J.

3. I therefore recommend that the materials of the building and other property may be sold and the sale proceeds carried to the credit of the Government under Regulation III of 1817.

4. The site of the building being part of the Village Site, it may be made over to the Applicant's requiring site for building purposes.
