From, Henry Swell Eyre, Collector of North Arcot.

To, J. G. Eyre,
Secretary to the Board of Revenue,
Madras.

SIR,

The Polim of Kistnapuram having been attached under the chain Rules in consequence of the Polim's failure to appear for the settlement of his Polim, a gumastah was appointed to manage its affairs on a salary of Rs. 15 per mensem.
The Polim remained under attachment from the 23rd January last to the 17th April 1873 and the amount of Revenue collected during this period was carried to the credit of Government under the head Land Revenue Miscellaneous as shown in the margin.

January 1873. Rs. 165-0-0 March " 164-4-0
929-4-0

2. As the Gumastah has not however

however been paid, I have the honor to request that the Board will be pleased to move the Government to sanction the payment to him of Rs 42-13-8 being the pay due to him for the period during which the Polim remained under attachment.
